TWO WOMEN SAVED FROM OPERATIONS

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Their Own Stories Here Told.

Beatrice, Neb.—"Just after my marriage my left side began to pain me and the pain got so severe at times that I suffered terribly with it. I visited three doctors and each one wanted to operate on me but I would not consent to an operation. I heard of the good Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was doing for others and I used several bottles of it with the result that I haven't been bothered with my side since then.
I am in good health and I have two little girls."—Mrs. R. B. Child, Beatrice, Neb.

The Other Case.
Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but my husband thought I had better write to you and I did so, stating my symptoms. I commenced taking Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Maine.

OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS To the Advertiser

The bombardment of Adrianople stopped at eleven o'clock last night, when the Bulgarian commander, under a flag of truce, informed the town that the cannonading would cease for twenty-four hours to enable the city to surrender. Later dispatches say the bombardment has been resumed.
It is expected that a determined attempt to capture the fortress by storm will be made within a few hours.

One of the wings of the Bulgarian army moved near Adrianople today, the rival outposts now being but two hundred yards apart.
Dispatches from the front tonight record another crushing blow to the Turks. A large force of Turks made a sortie from the Constantinople defense lines, but were repulsed and one thousand captured.

Severe fighting between the Turks and the Bulgars on the Gallipoli Peninsula is reported to have started today at an early hour and the Turks have sustained heavy losses. Forty-five thousand Turks and Arabs are doggedly resisting the Bulgar advance.

Following the presentation of the impeachment resolution by Mukio Ozawa, which caused the suspension of the Japanese Diet, Hajime Motoda, also floor leader of Seiyu-Kai or Constitutional party, attacked the government and demanded an explanation on the part of the Premier Katsura as to the alleged unconstitutional action willfully committed by him when he formed his new cabinet. Katsura answered briefly and a moment later asked the Emperor to suspend the Diet for five days.
The crowd at the gate of the parliament house enthusiastically greeted the Seiyu-Kai members, while shouting and jeering at the supporters of the bureaucratic premier.
The scene was a wild one, but there was no violence.

Promptly at noon today the army transport Sherman left for Honolulu and Manila. She carries no regular organization of troops, but a considerable passenger list of officers and enlisted men.
There were about seventy-five officers and their families on board of whom Brig-Gen. Montgomery M. Mac-comb is the senior officer. General Maccomb is the commanding officer of the Department of Hawaii and is returning to Honolulu.

President-elect Wilson sees no particular reason why he should announce his cabinet before he is inaugurated, although he intimated today that he would try to reach a decision as to selections before that time.
"I remember very well," said the governor, "that President Cleveland did not announce his cabinet until after he had been inaugurated and there were speculations and guesses until the very day of the announcement."

The British government has entered into negotiations with the principal North Atlantic steamship lines with a view to equipping a vessel with a powerful wireless installation to patrol the iceberg regions and notify wireless stations on the American coast of the location of icebergs and similar dangers. The cost of the service as contemplated is to be shared by the government and the companies.

Prince Eitel Fritz, Kaiser Wilhelm's second son, narrowly escaped death today when an express train on which he was traveling from Bucharest to Berlin crashed into the rear of an off tank train near Mediasch.
The collision caused an explosion
